

CITY OF JAMAICA BEACH

STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES FOR PUBLIC INFORMATION REQUESTS

GENERAL

The Interim City Secretary is responsible for the effective disposition of Public Information Requests submitted to the City of Jamaica Beach. An effective and efficient means of receiving, cataloging, retrieving, and dispensing of records is essential to comply with the laws of the State of Texas.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to set out guidelines to ensure that all requests for public information are handled fairly, timely, and within the statutes set out by the State of Texas Public Information Act. In the event of any conflict between the City's Policy and the Texas Public Information Act, the Act and other applicable state laws shall prevail.

THE PUBLIC INFORMATION ACT (THE ACT)

The Texas Public Information Act ("The Act") gives the public the right to request access to government information. The Act is triggered when a person submits a written request to a governmental body. The request must ask for records or information already in existence. The Act does not require a governmental body to create new information, to do legal research, or to answer questions. In preparing a request, a person may want to ask the governmental body what information is available.

The Act requires that an officer for public information of a governmental body promptly produce public information for inspection, duplication, or both on application by any person to the officer. "Promptly" means as soon as possible under the circumstances, that is, within a reasonable time, without delay.

If an officer for public information cannot produce public information for inspection or duplication within ten (10) business days after the date the information is requested, the officer must certify that fact in writing to the requestor and set a date and hour within a reasonable time when the information will be available for inspection or duplication.

INFORMATION SUBJECT TO THE PUBLIC INFORMATION ACT

Public information includes any information that is written, produced, collected, assembled, or maintained under a law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business by and for a governmental body and the governmental body owns the information; has a right of access to the information; or spends or contributes public money for the purpose of writing, producing, collecting, assembling, or maintaining the information; or if the information is created by, transmitted to, received by, or maintained by an officer or employee of the governmental body in the officer's or employee's official capacity, or a person or entity performing official business or a governmental function on behalf of a governmental body, and pertains to official business of the governmental body.

Protected health information as defined in the Act, is not public information and is not subject to disclosure.

PUBLIC INFORMATION IS CONTAINED IN RECORDS OF ALL FORMS

The Public Information Act applies to recorded information in practically any medium, including: paper; film; a magnetic, optical, solid state, or other device that can store an electronic signal; tape; Mylar; and any physical material on which information may be recorded, including linen, silk, and vellum. The Act specifies the general forms in which the media containing public information exist include: a book, paper, letter, document, e-mail, Internet posting, text message, instant message, other electronic communication, printout, photograph, film, tape, microfiche, microfilm, photostat, sound recording, map, and drawing and a voice, data, or video representation held in computer memory; as well as any electronic communication created, transmitted, received, or maintained on any device if the communication is in connection with the transaction of official business.

RIGHTS OF REQUESTORS

All people who request public information have the right to:

- Receive treatment equal to all other requestors.
- Receive a statement of estimated charges in advance.
- Choose whether to inspect the requested information, receive a copy of the information, or both.
- Be notified when the governmental body asks the Attorney General (AG) for a ruling on whether the information may or must be withheld.
- Be copied on the governmental body's written comments to the AG stating the reason why the stated exceptions apply.
- Lodge a complaint with the AG regarding any improper charges for responding to a public information request.
- Lodge a complaint with the AG or the county attorney or criminal district attorney, as appropriate, regarding any alleged violation of the Act.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF REQUESTORS

All people who request public information have the responsibility to:

- Submit a written request according to a governmental body's reasonable procedures.
- Include enough description and detail of the requested information so the governmental body can accurately identify and locate the requested items.
- Cooperate with the governmental body's reasonable requests to clarify the type or amount of information requested.
- Respond promptly in writing to all written communications from the governmental body (including any written estimate of charges).
- Make a timely payment for all valid charges.
- Keep all appointments for inspection of records or for pick-up of copies.

RIGHTS OF GOVERNMENTAL BODIES

All governmental bodies responding to information requests have the right to:

- Establish reasonable procedures for inspecting or copying information.
- Request and receive clarification of vague or overly broad requests.
- Request an AG ruling regarding whether any information may or must be withheld.
- Receive timely payment for all copy charges or other charges.
- Obtain payment of overdue balances exceeding $100 or obtain a security deposit before processing additional requests from the same requestor.
- Request a bond, prepayment or deposit if estimated costs exceed $50.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF GOVERNMENTAL BODIES

All governmental bodies responding to information requests have the responsibility to:

- Treat all requestors equally.
- Complete open records training as required by law.
- Be informed of open records laws and educate employees on the requirements of those laws.
- Inform the requestor of cost estimates and any changes in the estimates.
- Confirm the requestor agrees to pay the costs before incurring the costs.

- Respond in writing to all written communications from the AG regarding complaints about violations of the Act.

PROCEDURES FOR REQUESTING PUBLIC INFORMATION

The Public Information Act allows a governmental body to establish reasonable procedures for responding to Public Information Request (Open Records Request). The Act also allows a governmental body to designate methods for making written requests for public information and to designate a single mailing and a single e-mailing address for receiving written requests for public information. The City of Jamaica Beach is not required to respond to a written request for public information unless the request is received at one of the designated addresses.

All requests for public information must be in writing and directed to the Interim City Secretary.

All written requests must be delivered to the Interim City Secretary by one of the following designated methods/addresses:

1. United States mail at City of Jamaica Beach, Attn: Interim City Secretary, 5264 Jamaica Beach, Jamaica Beach, TX 77554;
2. Electronic mail at ngonzales@ci.jamaicabeach.tx.us; or
3. Hand delivery at City Hall, Interim City Secretary Office, 16628 San Luis Pass Rd., Jamaica Beach, TX 77554.

Under the Public Information Act, some categories of information do not have to be released. Exceptions to disclosure fall into two general categories: 1) mandatory exceptions that make information confidential and require a governmental body to withhold information, and 2) discretionary exceptions that allow but do not require a governmental body to withhold information. In most instances, a governmental body is required to request a decision from the Attorney General as to what portions of the requested information may be withheld and what must be released to a requestor; an AG response can take up to forty-five (45) business days from the date the AG received the request for a decision. However, a requestor may permit a governmental body to redact information without requesting an Attorney General decision. You are not required to agree to the redaction of any information responsive to your request, but doing so may streamline the handling of your request. If you agree to redactions in a request, then you may request the redacted information in a future information request.

Public information will be made available to the public during the City's normal business hours.

A request will be considered withdrawn if the requestor: fails to inspect or duplicate the public information in the offices of the governmental body on or before the 60th day after the date the information is made available; fails to pay the postage and any other applicable charges accrued on or before the 60th day after the date the requestor is informed of the charges; or fails to provide a written response on or before the 60th day after the date the governmental body sends a written request for clarification or discussion on how the scope of a large amount of information might be narrowed.

A request made by an individual for information that pertains to oneself will not be considered a Public Information Request (i.e., an accident or incident report that the subject was involved in). All inquiries regarding matters other than themselves will be classified as a Public Information Request and must submit a written request.

PUBLIC INFORMATION REQUEST FORM (OPTIONAL)

A requestor may complete a City of Jamaica Beach Public Information Request Form, but use of the form is not required. The only requirement is that a request must be in writing. The City of Jamaica Beach Public Information Request Form is available at City Hall, 16628 San Luis Pass, Jamaica Beach, TX 77554 or it may be downloaded from the City's website: <http://www.ci.jamaicabeach.tx.us/Online%20Services.htm>.

OWNERSHIP & PRESERVATION OF PUBLIC INFORMATION

A current or former officer or employee of a governmental body does not have, by virtue of the officer's or employee's position or former position, a personal or property right to public information the officer or employee created or received while acting in an official capacity.

A current or former officer or employee of a governmental body who maintains public information on a privately owned device shall forward or transfer the public information to the governmental body or a governmental body server to be preserved as provided by in the Act; or preserve the public information in its original form in a backup or archive and on the privately owned device for the time described in the Act. The provisions governing the preservation, destruction, or other disposition of records or public information apply to records and public information held by a temporary custodian.

TEMPORARY CUSTODIAN OF PUBLIC INFORMATION

“Temporary Custodian” as defined in the Act means an officer or employee of a governmental body who, in the transaction of official business, creates or receives public information that the officer or employee has not provided to the officer for public information of the governmental body or the officer’s agent. The term includes a former officer or employee of the governmental body who created or received public information in the officers or employee's official capacity that has not been provided to the officer for public information.

A temporary custodian with possession, custody, or control of public information shall surrender or return the information to the governmental body not later than the 10th day after the date the Interim City Secretary requests the temporary custodian to surrender or return the information.

A temporary custodian's failure to surrender or return public information as required by the Act is grounds for disciplinary action by the governmental body that employs the temporary custodian or any other applicable penalties provided by state law or other law.

The governmental body is considered to receive the request for information on the date the information is surrendered or returned to the governmental body by a temporary custodian.
